ARTICLE VII OTHER REQUIREMENTS AND RESTRICTIONS OF ACTIVITIES OFFICERS

SECTION I

Activities officers can serve no more than two consecutive terms in any one office. A term is considered to be 12 months and not less than 6 months. A period of time less than six consecutive months is not considered a term.

SECTION II

A member can hold an executive position and a one non-executive position at the same time, when there is a lack of candidates, although it is preferred one position per member.

SECTION III

An activities committee member with at least one year continuous clean time who is not in a money-handling position may be appointed to handle funds up to a $200.00 limit. This allows members to help with registration, canteen, merchandise, etc.

ARTICLE VIII REMOVAL OF OFFICERS

SECTION I

A service member may be removed from their position for non-compliance. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of voting members present is required for removal. Non-compliance includes, but is not limited to:

- Loss of abstinence (automatic removal).
- Non-fulfillment of the duties of their positions.
- Absence at two consecutive regularly monthly business meetings of the Activities Committee without prior notification to the Chairperson or the Secretary.

SECTION II

An officer of this Committee may resign by providing written notification to the Activities Chairperson one month prior to the date such resignation takes effect.

SECTION III

In accordance with Area guidelines Article V, the Activities Chairperson may resign by providing written notification to the Area Chairperson one month before the resignation takes effect.

SECTION IV

Members of the Activities Committee who miss four consecutive meetings without prior notice to the Chairperson or Secretary will be removed from the contact list (including email), unless requested to remain on the contact list. The Secretary will contact the absent member prior to any removal.

ARTICLE IX ACTIVITIES MEETINGS

SECTION I

The regular monthly business meetings of the Activities Committee shall be held each month on the Saturday before the Area meeting, unless otherwise directed by the Activities Committee.

SECTION II

The Chairperson of the Activities Committee may call special meetings. The purpose of the meeting shall be stated. No business other than that with is stated may be conducted. At least seven days notice shall be given.

ARTICLE X ELECTIONS

SECTION I

Election for the Activities Chair is held at the October Area meeting.

Elections for Vice-Chair, Treasurer, Secretary, Program Coordinator, Assistant Program Coordinator, Registration Coordinator, Assistant Registration Coordinator, Hospitality Coordinator, Assistant Hospitality Coordinator, Merchandise Coordinator, Canteen Coordinator, and Convention Fundraising Coordinator are held in June at the regular monthly business meeting.

SECTION II

Nominations will be held for the two months before the election, at the April and May regular monthly business meetings. Nominees are required to attend their nomination and election dates.

SECTION III

Elected officers will assume their offices the month after elections (in July). Outgoing and incoming officers will also attend the learning day workshop for the purpose of training and continuity.

ARTICLE XI AMENDMENT OF GUIDELINES

SECTION I

Amendment of guidelines require a two thirds (2/3) vote of all voting committee members. Members must be present at regular business meeting to cast their vote.

SECTION II

The proposed amendment must be submitted in motion form and seconded before it is considered by the committee.

SECTION III

Housekeeping amendments and additions of words to Article XVI Definitions may be made at any time with a simple majority vote.

ARTICLE XII FUND FLOW SYSTEM

SECTION I

The Activities Committee has adopted a prudent reserve (approved by Area) for its yearly operating budget. The approved prudent reserve total of $3,900.00 is based on $3,000.00 seed money for the annual Central Nova Area Convention of Narcotics Anonymous (CNACNA), and a $900.00 replenishable amount for all other activities the committee may plan throughout the year.

SECTION II

One hundred percent (100%) of all funds over and above the prudent reserve shall be contributed to the Area Treasurer during the monthly Area meeting.

SECTION III

The only time funds will not be passed to Area is during the growth of an event (eg- CNACNA, Cape Breton camp out, etc.) where the planning, fundraising, registration, and financial responsibilities of the event are, by necessity, spread out over a period of months. In such cases, funds are withheld until the final fiscal accountability of the event is balanced through an event financial report.

ARTICLE XIII CONVENTION/EVENTS

SECTION I

Central Nova Area holds its annual convention in May, usually on the Victoria Day long weekend.

SECTION II

From time to time we have members who have volunteered to help at an event, either by sharing, chairing, helping with registration, working in the canteen etc., who are not planning on attending the event. These members are not expected to pay for attendance. In these instances, the member's name will be provided to the Registration Coordinator prior to the event.

SECTION III

7th Tradition or Newcomer/Hardship Fund contributions received at each event will be allocated where needed for that event. If not needed, they go into the fund flow system.

SECTION IV

All event-specific items the Activities Committee offers for sale at an event will be listed as a purchase option in that event's registration pamphlet, space permitting. Examples of event-specific items are ticketed items (banquet, brunch, comedian), and non-ticketed items with the event logo (hoodies, t-shirts). Inclusion in the event registration pamphlet allows for easy selection and payment options for the purchaser.

SECTION V

Pre-payment of convention items are by cash (in person only), personal cheque, certified cheque, or money order (in person or via mail), or via email transfer. Onsite payment of convention items are by cash, certified cheque, money order, or (where available) email transfer or debit/credit transaction.

Payment plan installments are made in the following order: Registration, Banquet (if purchased), Brunch (if purchased), and any other ticketed item (if offered and if purchased). Payment plan installments should be made for the entire cost of the item, to ensure members receive their desired purchase, and that accurate numbers can be forwarded to hotel catering staff.

Under no circumstances will ticketed items be sold to a registrant until their registration is paid in full. Non-ticketed items may be purchased independently of any other purchases or registration.

All items paid in full prior to the event are the property of the purchaser, and will be delivered to the purchaser upon registration check-in.

SECTION VI

If a member pays for registration or any ticketed or non-ticketed item, but the member subsequently cannot attend the convention, a refund may be requested by the purchaser.

Registration payments cannot be refunded after the event's pre-registration cut-off date, as stated on the convention's registration pamphlet.

Funds paid for meals (banquet, brunch) cannot be refunded after the meal cut-off date, as stated on the convention's registration pamphlet.

If there are no stated pre-registration or meal cut-off dates, the refund cut-off date is 30 days prior to the event.

Non-ticked items ordered and paid in full are the property of the purchaser, cannot be refunded, and will be delivered to the purchaser as soon as practicable. Non-ticketed items ordered but only partially paid for will be voided and a refund provided.

ARTICLE XIV OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

SECTION I

Sometimes we may be contacted by an outside organizations or groups to set up an information table or to host one of their own meetings at one of our events. These requests shall be considered on a case by case basis, and for each individual event.

SECTION II

Such requests must be voted on at the regular monthly business meeting for Activities.

SECTION III

Event registration requirements for non-NA attendees at full-day or multi-day events:

Item	Examples (using NARANON)	Register with NA?	Registration Requirements
Attending only to their information table or their own meetings.	NARANON member works their info table, or attends a NARANON meeting.	No	None.
Attending non-ticketed NA events such as auctions, clean time countdowns, or entertainment showcases.	NARANON member bids on NA t-shirt, sees spouse stand for their clean time, or enjoys NA musicians.	Yes	None.
Attending NA ticketed events such as banquets (includes the banquet speaker), brunches, and dances.	NARANON member eats at the banquet or brunch, or dances.	Yes	Full cost of ticketed events.
Attending other NA speakers, meetings, or workshops.	NARANON member attends the same way an NA member does. All event functions are open to them.	Yes	Full registration payment, plus full charges for ticketed events as applicable.

SECTION IV

Tradition six quotes "Cooperation with others is healthy for Narcotics Anonymous." "If our primary purpose becomes blurred by its relationship, it's time for us to step back and examine that relationship."

ARTICLE XV NEWCOMER/FINANCIAL HARDSHIP PACKAGE

- See Article XVI Definitions for the definition of newcomer and financial hardship.
- We welcome any addict who needs a newcomer/financial hardship package.
- We will not harass any addict by questioning their honesty or their need to request a newcomer/financial hardship package. If one is needed, one will be provided.
- The newcomer/financial hardship package applies to registration only and all activities that are included in that registration, eg- the supper and dance at New Year's Eve or the Speaker Jam.
- The newcomer/financial hardship package does not include any part of a multi-day event requiring an extra fee (ticketed items), eg- banquet or brunch.
- Under no circumstances will ticketed items be sold to a registrant until their registration is paid in full. Ticketed items may be held for a not-yet-paid registrant only until 30 days prior to the date of the ticketed item. If the registration and ticketed item(s) are not paid in full by then, the ticketed items will be released for general purchase, and any partial payments will be returned.

- No member will be turned away from any of our events; however the member will be asked if they can afford part of the registration fee to help offset costs.
- If any concerns arise at the door during registration, at least one executive officer and one other officer will be contacted to resolve the situation in a quiet and respectful manner.

(Hereinafter "the MEMBER")

1. CNANA is conducting a convention/event and has invited the MEMBER to be a speaker or participate in a meeting which CNANA intends to record and offer copies of the audio recording for sale. The proposed audio recording will contain the personal experiences of the MEMBER as they share their experience, strength, and hope in recovery. The MEMBER, in electing to sign this Copyright Release Agreement, consents to do so as a means of permitting CNANA to share their personal experience, strength, and hope in recovery with others through the use of the audio recording that is made. In doing so, the MEMBER helps other addicts and assists CNANA fulfill its part of the overall responsibility to the fellowship of Narcotics Anonymous to carry the message of recovery and be self-supporting by our own efforts.
2. The MEMBER receives consideration from this agreement
 - a. through the satisfaction of having been able to share their experience, strength, and hope to assist CNANA to carry the message of recovery and be self-supporting; and,
 - b. through receipt of a copy of his or her audio recording, usually in mp3 format sent to the email address provided above.
3. For this consideration received, the MEMBER hereby transfers all of his or her rights to the audio recording made during the meeting on behalf of CNANA. This transfer is made for the purpose of allowing CNANA to utilize the MEMBER's personal recovery in audio recording only. The MEMBER is transferring all of his or her rights to copyright, reissue, or make excerpts from the audio recording, or to renew or extend any copyrights thereon. These audio recordings will possibly be offered for sale at places other than this convention/event.
4. The MEMBER agrees to hold CNANA harmless from any liability arising from its use or sale of the recorded audio.
5. This is the only agreement between CNANA and the MEMBER regarding the audio recording. This agreement can only be changed or amended by the written consent of the parties hereto. This agreement binds the MEMBER's heirs and assigns. CNANA agrees to use all reasonable caution to protect the MEMBER's anonymity.
